Foreword

We the staff of the 1971 VIKING yearbook, present the fourth edition of the VIKING. This book captures only a few VIKING memories of our past year. We hope this book establishes one particular phase of a great school year.

The publication of this year's book was filled with excitement, effort, and enjoyment. We take pride in presenting the 1971 VIKING.

Thank you,
The 1971 STAFF

The Alma Mater

Dear Pinkston High, our hearts to thee we bring.
Our voices raise, thy praise we sing.
Our Pinkston High, long may your colors fly.
We'll never yield on any field, dear Pinkston High.

What-e'er we do, where-e'er we be
We will keep our standards high for thee.

Dear Pinkston High, to you we will be true.
Our very best we pledge to thee, dear Pinkston High.

Editors Speak

DEAR STUDENTS:

Life is nothing more than a change, and so the delegation of society revolves in motion with the challenge of an over-all distinction of pride and respect. Some of us taste this distinction while others lurk in the shadows of faith, loneliness, and grace which life holds unexpectedly for us.

We have undertaken a change here at L. G. Pinkston this year, and the 1971 yearbook has tried to capture these memories of our most explosive year yet. In introducing this year's book we took pride in a new era of VIKING history. Under the leadership of Mr. Travis Johnson and Mr. Leon Hayes, we have accomplished many successful achievements.

I would personally like to thank Mr. James L. Finnell yearbook chairman. Also added thanks and appreciation to Gloria Joe, Beverly High, Phyllis Bell, and Roxie Gray who put forth special efforts in working with this book. Added thanks to my Staff and the Photography Staff without whose help this book would be impossible.

EDITOR OF 1971

In every person's life there are precious moments that he should wish to remember.

We, the staff of the VIKING ANNUAL, have a burning desire to capture the golden moments of L. G. Pinkston High School.

This yearbook has been prepared for you. I hope that you will enjoy viewing this annual as much as we have enjoyed preparing it.

Change with direction is the only path to progress, and that is the ever-important yardstick with which the many changes at L. G. Pinkston have been. Much study, much thought, and careful planning have given birth to a new, more vigorous, L. G. Pinkston High School.

"Never seek to equal, but seek to excel."

CO-EDITOR

Dr. Estes with members of his Executive Team

Members of the Dallas Independent School District Board of Education. Seated — Left to Right: Trinidad Garza, G. R. Hollingsworth, John Plath Green, Dr. Emmett J. Conrad (Vice President), Dr. Marvin H. Berkeley (President), Dr. Nolan Estes (Superintendent), Mrs. Henri L. Bromberg, Jr., Dr. Sam R. Faris, Dr. Daniel W. Foster, and Joe W. Kirven.

The Principal

THE PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

It is with pride that I accept the invitation to add a few words to the Fourth Edition of the "VIKING ANNUAL." To be a part of this wonderful school and our excellent students is the greatest compensation any person can receive.

We have tried new ideas this year and we will try many more in the future. Some will work — some will not. In either case, our efforts together are recorded herein in pictures and words for us to relive in the years to come.

As you leave us to go out into the world for your higher calling in life, I hope you will keep before you the words John Donne in his "Seventeenth Meditations."

"... any man's death diminishes me,
because I am a part of mankind;
therefore, never ask to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee and me."

Very truly yours,

Travis E. Johnson

BECAUSE WE ARE GRATEFUL
WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK
AND A POEM TO THE FOLLOWING EDUCATORS . . .

Quite Work

One lesson, Nature, let me learn of thee,
One lesson which in every wind is blown,
One lesson of two duties kept of one
Though the loud world proclaim their enmity —
Of toil unsevered from tranquillity;
Of labor, that is lasting fruit outgrows,
Far Noisier schemes, accomplished in repose,
Too great for haste, too high for rivalry.

Yes, while on earth a thousand discords ring,
Man's fitful uproar mingling with his toil,
Still so thy sleepless ministers move on,
Their glorious tasks in silence perfecting;
Still working, blaming still our vain turmoil;
Laborers that shall not fail, when man is gone.

Chapter 1 THE BEGINNINGS OF GOVERNMENT IN THE UNITED STATES

The roots of American government reach deep into the past. Our system of government did not suddenly spring into being as at the wave of some political magician's wand. Nor was it pulled out of thin air by the

Our English Heritage. The French, Spanish, Dutch, Norwegians, and other Europeans settled in parts of what was to become the United States. But it was the English who came in the largest numbers. And it was the English who came to control the thirteen colonies that stretched for 1,300 miles along the Atlantic seaboard.

These early pioneers who cleared the wilderness and fought off the Indians had to look out their own economic future in the New World. But they came here in search of greater freedom and they brought with them the political ideas of a government which had been working and developing in England for centuries.

Founding Fathers at Philadelphia in the summer of 1787. They had developed through long centuries of experience, tradition, thought, and deed. We shall now review the history of these beginnings.

The Colonial Period

dom and they brought with them the political ideas of a government which had been working and developing in England for centuries. They brought with them, too, the twin ideas of limited government and civil liberties. That is, that government is limited in what it may do, and, especially, that it is limited in the sense

SETTLERS AT WORK.

Early Americans had to live together in harmony, or they would not survive. This was called "government in order to live," the beginning of our government today.

of which are to be found today — county, borough, jury, sheriff, coroner, and justice of the peace, for example. And all of these were well-known in England long before the first Englishman ever heard of America.

(1) The Twin Concepts of Limited Government and Civil Liberties. They brought with them, too, the twin ideas of limited government and civil liberties. That is, that government is limited in what it may do, and, especially, that it is limited in the sense that each man has certain rights that government cannot injure or take away. These great principles of freedom were proclaimed in such historic English documents as the Magna Carta in 1215, the Petition of Right in 1628, and the Bill of Rights and the Act of Toleration of 1689.

(2) The Concept of Representative Government. A third vitally important concept brought to America in English ships was that of representative government. For centuries there had been developing in England the

On behalf of the Senior representatives of the Viking Annual Staff, We would like to show a token of appreciation to the Sophomore class for helping us to make the year-book a great success.

We've only begun to strive for the best, to fulfill each dream And hoping never to detest.
Our future is now our most precious gift,
To cherish with love and care
And now we seek for the better things, for someday
We'll be there.

Dear Sammy,
You are a nice young man,
I must say. Although during football season, we showed the real us. You know what I mean. Stay as crazy as you are {Poco}. Best of luck in the future.
